Lord Dhanwantri is considered integral to Ayurveda's genesis as he was instructed to introduce these hymns to the human realm. His specialty was Shalya Chikitsa or surgery, and Sushruta was one of his most famous disciples. He is also said to have been responsible for the division of Ayurveda into eight categories, which include shalya, shalakya, kaya chikitsa, bhutaviद्या, kaumarabhritya, agadatantra, rasayanatantra and vajikaranatantra.

Navgraha Vatika means garden of 9 planets represented by 9 plants which are planted in a particular direction to get the benefit of 9 planets. As these plants represent different planets i.e. different celestial forces so this vatika is used to get the power of navgraha.

The Museum of Herbal drugs, Minerals, Metals, Gem stones and Traditional Ayurvedic equipments has been established in DPSRU. The objective is to create interest and increase knowledge about Ayurveda among students. The herbal drug samples are paired with QR code and one can easily get detailed information by scanning them.

Inauguration of Navgraha Vatika, Pratima of Lord Dhanwantai & Ayurveda Museum with orientation program of B.Pharm Ayurveda

Inauguration of Dhanvantari Pratima, Ayurveda museum and Navgraha Vatika and orientation program of B.Pharm Ayurveda Ist semester students (2023-24) was held on 25 Sep, 2023. The event was organized by Department of B.Pharm (Ayurveda) and coordinated by Dr. Foziyah Zakir and Dr. Amrita Mishra.

Lord Dhanwantari is considered integral to Ayurveda's genesis as he was instructed to introduce these hymns to the human realm. His specialty was Shalya Chikitsa or surgery, and Sushruta was one of his most famous disciples. He is also said to have been responsible for the division of Ayurveda into eight categories, which include shalya, shalakya, kaya chikitsa, bhutavidya, kaumarabhritya, agadatantra, rasayanatantra and vajikaranatantra. And so considering its significance in Ayurveda, the idol was graciously gifted by Hon'ble VC, Prof. Ramesh K. Goyal and placed and inaugurated at 4th floor, Department of B.Pharm (Ayurveda) by the hands of esteemed guests, Prof. Tanuja Nesari, Director, All India Institute of Ayurveda and Prof. Shridhar Dwivedi, Senior Cardiologist, National Heart Institute, New Delhi.

Navgraha Vatika means garden of 9 planets represented by 9 plants which are planted in a particular direction to get the benefit of 9 planets. As these plants are represent different planets i.e. different celestial forces so this vatika is used to get the power of navgraha. The garden is situated in herbal garden.

The Museum of Herbal drugs, Minerals, Metals, Gem stones and Traditional Ayurvedic equipment has been established in DPSRU. The objective is to create interest and increase knowledge about Ayurveda in the students. The herbal drug samples are paired with QR code and one can easily get detail information by scanning them.

This event was planned to create awareness among students regarding the importance of Lord Dhanvantari in the history of Ayurveda and to apprise them on the significance of Navgraha Vatika. Further, the Ayurvedic drug samples and equipments were selected as per the curriculum of B.Pharm (Ayurveda) and thus the information obtained from the QR code will be helpful for their practicals. The Dean Student's Welfare, Prof. Rajiv Tonk, Dean Academics, Prof. Geeta Aggarwal and the Registrar, Prof. Harvinder Popli attended the event. More than 50 students and faculty members from different departments also participated.
